

Please protect our right to privacy in Indiana. An existing business relationship with a credit card company should not pave the way for inundating phone calls from all of the subsidiaries and business partners of that credit card company.